The appropriations herein provided for are to be construed as the maximum sums to be appropriated to and for the several purposes named herein, and no expenditures shall be made, nor shall any obligations be incurred, which, added to the actual expenditures will exceed the amounts herein appropriated for either of said purposes.

SEC. 2. The fact that the appropriations heretofore made for the above items are exhausted, or will become exhausted before the expiration of the time for which the same was appropriated, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity which justifies the suspension of the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House, and the rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

[NOTE.—The enrolled bill shows that the foregoing Act passed the House of Representatives, no vote given; and passed the Senate with amendment, yeas 21, nays 0. The House refused to concur in
